If there is the slightest doubt in the minds of any that Dandruff germs do not exist, their belief is compelled by the fact that a rabbit inoculated with the germs became bald in six weeks' time. It must be apparent to any person therefore that the early prevention of baldness is the destruction of the germ which causes it. ## LANGFORD NO LONGER IS AT HIS BEST

Able Judge Says He Is No Longer Able to Battle in Old Style.
(By Igne, in New York American)
Dan McKetrick, backed up by his army of fighters, arrived from Paris. Joe Jeannette and Willie Lewis trooped behind him. They had any number of interesting things to say of the new fight code.
"We have had a very successful season," said McKetrick. "Joe Jeannette is the big noise in Paris, although I won't say that McVey is down and out as a star. They think he is one of the greatest fighters in the world. He is only 21 years old and weighs 210 pounds. He will whip a lot of them yet. I never knew of a stronger fellow."
"We saw the fight between Ian Hague and Sam Langford. Here's a joke, now. I was willing to make that match and he wouldn't listen. He doesn't punch with his right hand as he used to. He has to draw it away back now. He tried every minute of that fight. Hague hit him one good one that nearly put him out. We are here to make a match with Johnson. I have authority to offer $20,000, and we will bet him $5,000 on the side. I will put a forfeit with the American Express company or the Bank of France if Johnson is willing to meet Jeannette. It must be a fight to a finish or we will not talk business."
Willie Lewis was all praise for Marcel Moreau, Frank Erne's middleweight.
"He's a wonder," said Lewis. "He has the greatest right hand punch I ever saw. It is as near like Joe Gans' old punch as any. Erne will make a lot of money with his pupil before he is through. Erne has spent a lot of time coaching him, and at present he is as dangerous as any middleweight in the world."
Lewis exhibited a broken right hand, the result of a fight with Jewey Smith. "He was a big fellow, and I should have a mallet to keep him on the floor when I put him down," said Lewis. "I am willing to box any of the middleweight here if they make 158 pounds. I'd like to get Papke. We saw the Jimmy Brit-Summers' fight and it was clearly a case of robbing Jimmy. They robbed Jimmy Walsh also. They're terrible burglars," was Lewis' parting shot.

JEFFRIES WILL NOT REFEREE KETCHEL-JOHNSON FIGHT.

Montreal, June 12.—James J. Jeffries refused to referee the fight between Stanley Ketchel and Jack Johnson next October, although requested by Ketchel to act. Jeffries said: "Ketchel wants me to referee his fight with Johnson, but it would not be consistent. I am heart and soul with Ketchel in that fight. I want to see him win. I make no bones about that sentiment. How would it look for me to get into the ring as referee with that feeling?"
"My sympathy is with Ketchel or any other white man who fights Johnson for the championship and I hope Ketchel will beat him for it will simply save me the job."

FIGHTS SCHEDULED FOR PACIFIC COAST

(By W. W. Naughton.)

The sport of the glove is certainly in a thriving condition, at least so far as the suburban end of it is concerned. Coffroth, the Mission-street promoter, seems to have outgeneraled and outstripped all local competitors in the matter of grabbing attractions, and if he keeps along at his present rate there will be nobody worth signing up in sight by the end of the year.

Coffroth has secured the necessary material for two Saturday afternoon shows in June. On the 19th, to use a theatrical term, he will present Monte Attell and Frankie Neil. On the following Saturday "Fighting Dick" Hyland and Leach Cross will monopolize the sunlight.

Linking the names of Neil and Attell awakens memories. There was a Neil-Attell vendetta, which stretched through the years, but it died to a boisterous murmur when Abe Attell made it patent that he carried too many guns for Frankie of the Neil tribe. Now that this same Frankie is to be sent against Monte Attell, the old ferocity will surely be revived. Frankie, naturally, is very much averse to being conquered by the whole Attell family, while Monte is ambitious enough to think that he can take care of anyone whom brother Abe has vanquished.

Apart from the slumbering embers of past jealousies, however, Frankie and Monte are of the splitfire brand. Whatever fame either had achieved has been by dint of fast and fierce fighting, and it is not likely that either of the boys will change his style for the coming season.

The fact that Dick Hyland is to be seen in action again this month commends itself to those who saw him in his affair with Battling Nelson. Dick endeared himself to the big Saturday crowd by the gallant stand he made against the Durable Dane.

In the closing rounds of that fight, when so exhausted by continuous effort, and so distressed by Nelson's merciless bombardment that his legs were bending beneath him, Dick kept facing the issue in a notably stout-hearted manner. The fight fans remember this, and they will be glad to see him extend again for a dual reason. They think his pluck and determination should be rewarded by an opportunity to test his fighting call against some one less formidable than Nelson. The fight fans favor him, and he is a capable performer over the sprint distance of the pugilistic game.

Leach Cross is a product of the ten-round game in New York. I have had contradictory opinions as to his prowess, but his record makes clear that he is a capable performer over the sprint distance of the pugilistic game.

Carl Lundgren the Cubs' castoff, is pitching good ball for Joe Kelly's Toronto team.

East Liverpool seems to have it on the other Ohio and Pennsylvania league teams so far this season.

On account of Doc Gessler's illness Harry Lord has been appointed captain of the Boston Americans.

Aurora Herrera, the Mexican lightweight, has returned to the game and will meet Chick Hudson in San Francisco July 5.

A New York bookmaker offers even money that the Highlanders will not finish the season in the first division. Jimmy Clabby expects to be matched to box Mike (Twin) Sullivan, the best to take place in San Francisco this month.

It's going to be a bad year for George Mullin, the Detroit flinger. George has won only ten straight games so far this season.

With Mathewson, Wiltsie and Raymond pitching winning ball the Giants should be able to give Chicago and Pittsburg a little excitement.

Philadelphia baseball fans are hoping that Billy Murray's Quakers will make a better showing on the road than they did at home.

Not content with pushing the Boston Nationals in over their heads all the other National league teams are standing on the Doves to drown them.

The measure to legalize ten-round bouts has passed both branches of the Wisconsin legislature and awaits the governor's signature to become a law.

Both Joe Jeannette and Sandy Ferguson have returned from Paris and no doubt they will be matched for another bout in the near future.

Jim Coffroth has offered Jim Jeffries $10,000 for a "make-believe" fight in order to get moving pictures of Jeff in the ring.

Pitcher "Dolly" Gray of Washington is beginning to show the stuff that Manager Cantillon has claimed all along was in the Californian.

Manager Harry Lumley of Brooklyn has signed "Lanky" Anderson, the University of Maryland pitcher. Anderson pitched five shut-out victories for the college nine this spring.

"Dots" Miller continues to cause happiness in Pittsburg. To jump from a New Jersey amateur team to the Pirates and make good is the stunt performed by "Dots," and one that is seldom equaled.

It looks strange to see Rochester leading the Eastern league. For several years past the quickest way to find out how Rochester stood was to begin at the bottom of the Eastern league percentage table.

McAleer's St. Louis players declare that Criss is the champion "sky denter" of the world. They claim that several balls hit by Criss have come down covered with snow and that one didn't come down until the game was over, when it was caught by the groundskeeper.

Have Use for Old Piling.
There has been secured by a New York state pulp company an option on every week, just so he comes home before 11 o'clock, and tells his wife exactly where he has been and brings some sort of little gift, just to show that he has been thinking about her all the time.—Birmingham Age-Herald.

OFFICERS RESCUE DIZZY MAN FROM FLAG STAFF

New York, June 12.—The versatility of the New York policemen was sensationally demonstrated last night when Patrolman John Whitman, popularly known as "Ajax, the Strong Man," because of his many heroic encounters with runaway horses, climbed the steel tower of the new Queensborough bridge, shinned up the swaying flagstaff and rescued Thomas Jones.

Jones had ascended to the gold ball at the very top of the flagstaff, 355 feet from the water, to string flags in preparation for today's official celebration of the opening of the bridge. His leg was attacked by a cramp, the swaying pole in the heavy breeze made him seasick and he shouted for help, hanging on to the gold ball for dear life and expecting to drop any minute to the mesh of steel girders below him.

"Ajax" Whitman was patrolling the promenade of the bridge near the tower, and heard Jones' cries. The policeman, who has half a dozen bravery medals, clambered up the steelwork of the bridge's superstructure and then up a lofty steel tower, more like a monkey than a human being. On reaching the base of the flagstaff, which is sixty feet high and a foot and a half in diameter at the base, Whitman called to Jones to hang on while he tore off his shoes and the next minute he was climbing the pole like a professional steple-jack. On reaching the top he threw one arm about the dizzy Jones and then slid swiftly and safely down the pole. From there he carried him down to the steelwork.

Introducing Mr. Spencer.

Harry was walking with another boy when he was joined by a friend a year or so older and inclined to manners. "Introduce me, Harry," the newcomer whispered, pompously.
Harry twisted, reddened and at last turned to his companion with "Jim, have you ever seen Gilbert Spencer?"
"No," the other boy answered.
"Well," Harry blurted out, reddening still more and jerking his thumb over his shoulder toward the newcomer, "that's him!"—Lippincott's.

Would Isolate the Ill-Tempered.

A well-known doctor says: "Worry, ill-temper, fault-finding, crossness, dejection are all forms of mental disease. They are also contagious. The law compels those having contagious physical disease to isolate themselves. Why should the law be more lenient to those who, with lowering brow, alien aspect, nagging or caustic speech profane or poison the moral atmosphere and disseminate the germs of evil?"

Why?

Why is it that whenever one glances into an undertaker's shop one invariably sees some man sitting in front of a closed desk behind the railing with his feet on the level with his head, apparently gazing into space? This seems to be the favorite attitude affected by our undertaking brethren. Will some kind soul "undertake" to throw a little light upon the subject?

Unusual Freedom.

"Are all married men as carefully watched as jokesmiths say they are?" "Certainly not. I know a married man who is allowed two nights out every week, just so he comes home before 11 o'clock, and tells his wife exactly where he has been and brings some sort of little gift, just to show that he has been thinking about her all the time.—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Signs of Jealousy.

"The count must love me."
"Why?"
"He gets sulky whenever another man wants to know how much papa is worth."

Women Make Good Mayors.

America had women as mayors before England, Australia or even New Zealand. In the four states where women have full suffrage it is not rare for women to be elected as mayors in small cities and give good service. A woman was mayor of Gayler, Kan., for two terms and declined a third election. She prided herself on the fact that more miles of sidewalk were laid in her administration than in that of any previous mayor. Her husband always expressed himself as pleased that she should hold the office, and even her worst enemies never said that she neglected her children or the duties of her household. The office kept her busy about an hour each day.

The Pity of It.

Most of the women who know best how to manage husbands don't know how to get them.

So the World Judges.

Actions are the raiment of the man.—Greek proverb.

Cuba's Imports of Yellow Pine.

Cuba imports annually about 150,000,000 feet of yellow and white pine, 80 per cent of which comes from the United States. No suitable building lumber grows there.

WANT ADS BRING BIG RESULTS.

S.S.S. NATURE'S TONIC

The very great majority of persons need a tonic in the Spring or early Summer. The system undergoes a change at this season and the entire physical machinery is disturbed. The general bodily weakness, a tired, worn-out feeling, little appetite, poor digestion, a half sick feeling and a general run-down condition of the system, show that the blood is weak or anemic, and a blood purifying tonic is needed to build up the deranged system and enrich the blood. The use of S. S. S. at this time may save you from a long spell of sickness, and it will certainly prepare you for the long, hot Summer. Many people have put off using a tonic until the system became so weakened and depleted it could not successfully throw off disease germs, and have paid for the neglect with a spell of fever, malaria or some other debilitating sickness. S. S. S. is Nature's ideal tonic. It is a science and experience have proven are best fitted for a tonic to the human system. It contains no minerals of any kind and is therefore perfectly safe for persons of any age. S. S. S. tones up the stomach and digestion, rids the system of that tired, worn-out feeling, and imparts vigor and strength to every part of the body. It purifies and enriches the blood, stimulates the secretory and excretory members to better action, quiets the overstrained nerves, and makes one feel better in every way.
